Elba BOE approves new policy on vaping

by Linda Hodge, Editor

During the August board of education meeting for Elba City Schools, acting superintendent Ted Watson asked board members to approve a new policy on vaping.

"Not only is vaping detrimental to the health of our kids, but it is just as bad of an issue for officials as smoking," Watson said. "I am asking you to adopt a policy for the discipline of students caught vaping."

The superintendent said, if approved, this would allow the offense to be handled by the School Resource Officer [SRO] and the court system rather than the administration of the school. Elba's SRO is Deputy Dale England, and he was present for the board meeting along with another SRO from the county, Deputy Stacey Austin.

"This is something we started in the county school system a few years ago," Deputy Austin said as he addressed board members on the issue.

Basically, Austin said the code the county follows says anyone under the age of 21 possessing tobacco can be issued a citation. He said vapes fall under the code for alternate devices that can be used.

Deputy Austin said any student caught vaping on school property would be issued a citation and would be given a court date for that citation. He said these are handled through the Coffee County District Court with Judge Joshua Wilson hearing the cases.

According to Deputy Austin the fine can range from $10 - $50 for vaping offenses. Also, he said the citation requires parents to be notified of the issued citation.

"I have told Deputy England that what I generally do is make a copy of the citation and when the parent comes to pick up the student from school, I hand them a copy of that citation," Austin said. "I am there to answer any questions, and I advise them of the court date that has been set."

Austin said this policy on vaping had helped to cut down tremendously on vaping issues at the county schools since it was implemented a few years ago.

Watson asked board members to adopt the new policy making it effective immediately. It was unanimously approved by board members.

LOCAL EMERGENCY PERSONNEL RESPONDED Wednesday morning, Aug. 28, just after 10 a.m. to the scene of a 3-vehicle wreck at the intersection of U.S. Highway 84 and Alabama Highway 125 (Smith Avenue) in Elba. As shown above, one person was airlifted from the scene by Enterprise Rescue's air unit due to injuries. Reportedly, the accident occurred when a vehicle traveling east on U.S. Hwy 84 attempted to make a turn onto Smith Avenue while another vehicle was traveling west on U.S. Hwy. 84. The vehicle attempting to make the turn collided with the vehicle traveling west, and that vehicle then hit another vehicle that was stopped at the stop sign on Smith Avenue at the intersection. It was the driver of the vehicle attempting to make the turn that was airlifted from the scene.

ADPH seeks proposals from youth-serving organizations to protect youth from nicotine initiation and secondhand smoke

The Alabama Department of Public Health is currently accepting proposals to collaborate with qualified organizations in Alabama to affect social norm changes around tobacco use and protect youth from nicotine initiation and exposure to secondhand smoke.

The program anticipates awarding up to nine grants ranging from $50,000 to $75,000. The required scope of work will include promoting community environments that protect elementary, middle, and high school-aged children from exposure to secondhand smoke; educating students on the dangers of vaping and deceptive marketing tactics; and promoting cessation among youth.

Eligible applicants include governmental agencies and not-for-profit organizations.

Organizations are invited to submit proposals for consideration by September 16, 2024. The request for proposals can be viewed at <https://www.alabamapublichealth.gov/tobacco/assets/youth-tobacco-rfp-2024-2025.pdf>

Elba High School Alumni Association planning Sept. 14th breakfast meeting for all alumni and friends

Elba's Homecoming 2024 is just a week away, and the Elba High School Alumni Association invites all alumni and friends of alumni to come to a special meeting Saturday morning, Sept. 14, at the Elba Country Club.

"We are hosting a Saturday breakfast meeting this year for homecoming for our alumni and all friends of Elba City Schools," said Elba High School Alumni Association president Linda Hodge. "This will be a great opportunity for alumni and those who support the school system to hear the many things the alumni association does to support Elba City Schools while enjoying breakfast prepared by Elba Country Club chef Anthony Shiffer."

Gathering time for the meeting will be 8:30 a.m., breakfast will begin at 9 a.m., and Hodge said the meeting should be over by 10 a.m.

"We know Homecoming is a busy time for everyone, but our meeting is a great opportunity for alumni and friends to catch-up and reminisce while also supporting our cause," Hodge said.

The alumni association uses funds from membership fees and fund raisers to help provide scholarships each year to graduating seniors from Elba High School and to help see to the needs of Elba City Schools as they arise.

"I recently looked back over the scholarships we have provided since the alumni association started and the projects we have helped fund," Hodge said. "It was amazing to see in black and white all that has been accomplished in less than 10 years! I think those who attend this year's breakfast meeting on Saturday the 14th will be in awe too."

According to Hodge, the Elba High School Alumni Association membership fee is only $20 per year, and those who join annually help make all this possible. She added that membership is not just limited to alumni...friends of Elba alumni also are welcome to join.

"The alumni association officers work well together to utilize our funds the best we possibly can supporting our students and schools," Hodge said. "Anyone who donates that $20 for the membership fee is part of each and every thing we are able to accomplish for Elba City Schools!"

Again, the alumni association meeting will be Saturday, Sept. 14, at the Elba Country Club beginning at 8:30 a.m. The country club is located at 1477 Country Club Way in Elba.

"Please make plans to join us on the 14th," Hodge said. "It should be an informative meeting, and the breakfast is sure to be great!"

The cost to eat is $12 per person, but not required to attend the meeting.

ELBA'S GETTING A NEW MURAL...During the Elba City Council meeting held Monday evening, Aug. 26, council members gave approval for Restoration 154 to proceed with a project to have a mural painted on the levee gate at the Pea River Bridge on Davis Street. Laurie Chapman, representing Restoration 154, was at the meeting and showed council members a rendering (pictured above) on what the artist had come up with for the side of the levee gate coming into downtown Elba [traveling west on Davis Street]. She said the mural project had been broken into two phases to accommodate funding, and the "welcome" part coming into Elba would be painted first. With the council's approval, Chapman said the artist would begin work this week. She said with the roadway currently closed due to another issue, that would potentially allow work on the mural painting to move more quickly. Council members gave the go-ahead approval as requested.

Windy Thoughts
with Linda Hodge, Editor

If you noticed the traffic stops report from the above Elba Police Report for Labor Day [Monday, Sept. 2], you saw that Elba patrol officers made 40 traffic stops that day. It has been a long time since we have seen the local officers make that many traffic stops in one day! If we were asked to guess, we would go with the majority of those traffic stops being on folks headed home from the beach after enjoying the long holiday weekend. There were 24 written and verbal warnings given on the day, but 15 drivers found themselves the recipient of a paying citations...and one person received a trip to the local jail. We bet the ones that got the warnings give off a sigh of relief while the others wish they had done better to avoid the trouble earned. It is never fun to get stopped by the police, but we are glad we have officers in place to do the job! They are helping to ensure traveling safety through Elba is good. Our advice to those that did get stopped...obey the speed limit next time and you will be just fine!!

We too have been stopped for speeding once or twice in our driving days by a police officer. We were not happy about it, but we acknowledged our wrong-doing. Not saying we won't ever get stopped again, but we do try to keep our driving speed within the appropriate range as much as possible. Although, we often will be enjoying the ride only to look down and see our foot has gotten a bit too heavy on that gas pedal. When this happens we try to slow down as quickly as possible and say thank goodness we didn't meet the police before we realized what we were doing!

We still are not happy to see the old Burger King lot in downtown Elba in its current mess, but we won't say too much again this week. All we can do is hope someone will take care of that sooner rather than later and send a reminder that there are ways to see it gets done.

Mayor Tom Maddox made mention during a recent Elba City Council meeting that city, county and state folks had met to again discuss the Coffee County Lake. According to the mayor, there is a good bit of work that needs to take place at the lake before it can be reopened, but he said it will happen. If the mayor's predictions are on track, those who enjoy fishing at the Coffee County Lake may just be able to do that again next Spring! Let's hope he is correct. We sure hate to see such a beautiful lake facility go to waste. There is great potential there, and it sounds like those involved now are hoping to take advantage of that potential to make the Coffee County Lake the best it can be for all.

The Zion Chapel Rebels have won there first two ballgames of the 2024 football season. That is something the Rebels have not been able to do since the 2011 season. Those folks have something to be proud of already this season, and maybe more wins will come their way as the season continues.

Sister seems to enjoy reminding Cuzin Lou Lou more and more these days that she "isn't a Spring Chicken anymore" meaning her younger days are now behind her. On the other hand, Lou Lou refuses to admit she isn't as young as she once was when it comes to doing what she wants, when she wants... and still be able to operate like nothing happened the next day.

Well...Sister seemingly got a win on this one over the Labor Day weekend... but don't tell her Lou Lou admitted it!

The two snuck away for a holiday weekend getaway leaving Saturday morning and returning home Monday afternoon.

The weather was good, the company was great, and Lou Lou was expecting nothing less than a fantastic weekend. She was not wrong!

But...she pushed the limit this time on how long she could keep going before her 'ole body said "slow down, girl!"

Of course, Sister got in a nap on the drive to the getaway destination, and she went to bed much earlier than Lou Lou each night... and grabbed a quick nap each day too!

Lou Lou, on the other hand, did not want to miss any fun...so she kept going and going like the Energizer bunny! Fast forward to Monday, and everything was seemingly going in Lou Lou's favor. That was until about an hour or so into the drive home. Sister was in the passenger seat enjoying yet another siesta when the heavy eyes hit Lou Lou!

She fought it for a bit and then decided it was time to make a pit stop to get some caffeine! This came in the form of a big 'ole cup of coffee and a chocolate candy bar.

It wasn't the best option for the hips, but it was the best way to get Lou Lou wide awake again! And, it worked...well...for a while.

After another hour or so of travel, Lou Lou suddenly felt the tiredness sneaking back up on her. She and Sister were only about 40 minutes away from home by this time.

"What in the name of Yonder," she thought to herself! "This never happens!"

By this time, Sister was wide awake from her nap, and she too noticed the fatigue 'setting in' on Lou Lou.

"You are going to learn one day," Sister said. "You are not as young as you once were! Your body needs more sleep!"

It does not make Lou Lou happy when Sister is correct, so, she refused to admit it. She did, however, pull over and allow Sister to drive the rest of the way home...but still will not tell Sister she is right!!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!!

Gain and Loss

We have some interesting ways to avoid using the word death. We use expressions such as, "He went away," "God took her," or "I lost him." Lost is a most accurate word to describe the death of a Christian. Nowadays, everyone talks about the "bottom line" and for a Christian, the bottom line concerning death is that it is a gain and never a loss. We can all accept this is in our heads, but sometimes it is hard for us to accept it in our hearts.

The Apostle Paul, however, was firmly convinced that he would never lost his life. He might give his life for the cause of Christ (and we can be fairly certain he did), but he never would have wanted anyone to speak of it as a loss. For Paul, death was more like the return on an investment. He had invested his life in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ, and after death, he would receive the "full benefits" from his investment.

No doubt we will always speak of death as a loss, and that is alright as long as we remember the loss is on our side. We grieve, and we have every right to grieve. We have lost the companionship of one we love, but if that person was a Christian, he or she has gained the eternal companionship of God the Father and Christ the Savior. For a Christian, it is always true that "to die is to gain."

What does the Bible say about... Exercise?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"I am the Lord, exercising loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth" (Jeremiah 9:24).

"But reject profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself toward godliness. For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come" (1 Timothy 4:7-8).

"Those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil" (Hebrews 5:14).

Today we hear a lot about the need for physical exercise which is important to take care of our bodies which are the temple of God (1 Corinthians 3:16-17; 6:19-20). But as Paul writes in the above verses spiritual exercise is more important.

The Bible tells of the goodness and blessings that God exercises to us, and of our spiritual exercise to know what is right and wrong.

The message on a church sign posted, "Exercise daily...Walk with God." This reminds us of the importance of physical exercise, but that spiritual exercise is more important as we spend time with God in prayer and study of His word.

Not only at 1 Timothy 4:7-8, did Paul speak of exercise but several times he writes about running the Christian race (1 Corinthians 9:24-27; Hebrews 12:1). Those of the first century to whom Paul was writing was thus familiar with the original Olympic games involving exercise. The proper exercise of both physical and spiritual will make people feel better, be happier, more healthy and prepare us for eternal life in heaven.

When a Parent Dies: Expect to Feel a Multitude of Emotions

The parent-child bond is perhaps the most fundamental of all human ties. When your mother or father dies, that bond is torn. In response to this loss you may feel a multitude of strong emotions.

Numbness, confusion, fear, guilt, relief and anger are just a few of the feelings you may have. Sometimes these emotions will follow each other within a short period of time. Or they may occur simultaneously.

While everyone has unique feelings about the death of a parent, some of the more common emotions include:

Sadness. You probably expected to feel sad when your parent died, but you may be surprised at the overwhelming depth of your feelings of loss. It's natural to feel deeply sad. After all, someone who loved you without condition and cared for you as no one else could have is now gone. If this was your second parent to die, you may feel especially sorrowful; becoming an "adult orphan" can be a very painful transition. You may also feel sad because the loss of a parent triggers secondary losses, such as the loss of a grandparent to your children. Allow yourself to feel sad and embrace your pain.

Relief If your parent was sick for a time before the death, you may well feel relief when he or she finally dies. This feeling may be particularly strong if you were responsible for your ill parent's care. This does not mean you did not love your parent. In fact, your relief at the end to suffering is a natural outgrowth of your love.

Anger If you came from a dysfunctional or abusive family, you may feel unresolved anger toward your dead parent. His or her death may bring painful feelings to the surface. On the other hand, you may feel angry because a loving relationship in your life has prematurely ended. If you are angry, try to examine the source of that often legitimate anger and work to come to terms with it.

Guilt If your relationship with your parent was rocky, distant or ambivalent, you may feel guilty when that parent dies. You may wish you had said things you wanted to say but never did or you may wish you could unsay hurtful things. You may wish you had spent more time with your parent. Guilt and regret can be normal responses to the death of your mother or father. And working through those feelings is essential to healing.

As strange as some of these emotions may seem, they are normal and healthy. Let yourself feel whatever you may be feeling; don't judge yourself or try to repress painful thoughts and feelings. And whenever you can, find someone who will hear you out as you explore your grief.

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

The recent rash of parties for Mularz family members will draw to a close this weekend when we all come together to help our grandson Lawson celebrate his 14th birthday. Lawson spent the first couple of months of his life in Children's Hospital, in Birmingham, but once he got out it was full speed ahead and now he turning fourteen. We are truly blessed and pray every day that he will continue to grow as a Christian and a very special young man. HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

For what it is worth....

 There is an old saying that when you find yourself a deep in alligators it is too late to drain the swamp. The Elba Tigers never really thought about draining the swamp last Friday night, but were surrounded by gators throughout the game and never found their way out in a lopsided 49-22 home field loss that snapped their 28-game regular season winning streak. I told my radio partner before the game started that after watching Glenwood warm up Elba could be in trouble, and that proved to be an understatement as the former private school power simply did whatever it wanted and was without a doubt the best team on the field. While the four-touchdown loss hurt the players and coaches, it will hopefully be a lesson learned for the team that on any given night any team can come out on top, and that every opponent all season long will play its best when it faces the Tigers. Hey, Elba did try to battle back in the second half and scored three touchdowns to stay within shouting distance. However, the defense was simply overwhelmed and never even slowed down the Glenwood offensive attack. To put it mildly, the Tigers simply got whipped! I know the Rocky movies didn't win any awards, but they did include some sayings that I think are important to everyone, especially in sports, and one of my favorites is, "It ain't about how hard you can hit, it's about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward. How much you can take and keep moving forward. That's how winning is done." I urge the Tigers to adopt that mentality and start a new streak that will lead to bigger and better things as the season rolls along.

 It was a so-so week or teams in the area as Zion Chapel and Brantley claimed wins and New Brockton and Kinston suffered losses.

 Zion Chapel made it two wins in a row to open the season for the first time since 2011 with an easy 36-0 win over lowly Ellwood Christian. The Rebels were expected to have no problems with their opponents from Selma and posted their biggest win in over five years as they kept on replacing bad memories with new records.

 Brantley rallied twice from first quarter deficits to roll over Luverne 40-24 and the Bulldog fans enjoyed watching senior quarterback Jayden Parks turn in a spectacular performance as he rushed for 130 yards and two touchdowns and passed for 190 yards and three touchdowns to help the Bulldogs get off to a fast start.

 The Kinston Bulldogs scored 62 points and saw three different runners rush for over 100 yards, but it still wasn't enough as they were outscored in a 72-62 road loss to Geneva County. The Bulldogs are known for having a 'pound and ground' offense, but they have now scored 89 points in two games and have got to believe a win can't be far away.

 New Brockton battled until the final possession in a spirited 40-34 road loss to Slocomb. The Gamecocks had plenty of chances to throw in the towel as they trailed throughout the game, but scored two late touchdowns and almost pulled off a miracle comeback. The dedication and desire shown by the Gamecocks has to make their fans feel good about the future of the program.

 The high school football season may be only two weeks old, but there has already been more than its share of surprises all across the state. In action last week a total of twenty ranked teams fell to defeat, including a pair or teams ranked #1 and one team that has won three straight state titles. Here is a quick look back.... Class 1A – Top-ranked Elba got blown out at home by 3A newcomer Glenwood, while #3 Sweet Water got pounded by Thomasville 48-6. A couple of games that did catch my eye were Georgiana winning a road game at Arton 30-14, Florala knocking off 3A Daleville 30-14 and Pleasant Home getting a 14-6 win over Fruitdale.... Class 2A – Top-ranked Pisgah shocked the state with a 30-22 win over three-time defending state champ Fyffe and #2 Highland Home opened some eyes with a dominating 24-0 romp over 5A Charles Henderson, while Cottonwood hammered 3A Ashford 54-6, Geneva County lit up the scoreboard for the second straight week with a 72-62 win over Kinston, and Pike Liberal Arts blanked Samson 40-0 to up its record to 2-0.... Class 3A – Top-ranked Fyffe was upset by 2A Pisgah 30-22, while #2 T.R. Miller clobbered Straughn 40-7 and Houston Academy disposed of Pike County 31-7.... Class 4A – Top-ranked Jackson outscored Demopolis 42-20, but #2 Bibb County lost to Gordo 36-35, #7 Madison Academy dropped to 0-2 with a stunning 33-31 loss to Randolph and Opp began the Ed Rigby era with a 34-7 win over Northview, Florida.... Class 5A – Top-ranked Guntersville battled past Fort Payne 23-19 and #2 Montgomery Catholic ripped St. Clair County 51-14, while Ramsay slipped to 0-2 after two straight appearances in the state finals with an embarrassing 62-7 loss to Clay-Chalkville, Greenville mopped up the field with Wilcox Central 74-6, Andalusia slipped to 0-2 with a 13-10 upset loss to Hillcrest Evergreen and Rehobeth kept Carroll winless with a 33-8 win over the Eagles.... Class 6A – Top-ranked Saraland buried Blount 59-6 and #2 Parker downed Mt. Brook 30-16, while defending state champ Gulf Shores slipped to 0-2 with a 21-17 loss to Mary Montgomery and Pike Road also slipped to 0-2 with a 24-6 loss to Enterprise.... Class 7A – Top-ranked Central Phenix City defeated Lutheran North, Missouri, 30-12, and #2 Enterprise whipped Pike Road 24-6, while Dothan improved to 2-0 with a 49-21 win over Monroe, Georgia, and Montgomery Carver also went to 2-0 with a big 44-12 win over Percy Julian.

 It was a pretty good week for many area college football fans as Alabama and Auburn both posted lopsided wins over out-matched opponents and Troy failed to convert late and settled for a close loss at home.... Alabama needed only 21 plays to open up a 42-0 halftime lead in its big 63-0 romp over western Kentucky, while the defense limited the Hilltoppers to only just 145 yards in total offense despite the predictions of over-rated and well-travelled quarterback T.J. Finley, who started against the Tide for the third time, with his third different team.... Auburn scored at will against totally outmanned Alabama A & M in its 73-3 blowout win as returning quarterback Payton Thorn passed for 322 yards and four td's in the first half, while the defense limited the Bulldogs to 38 yards rushing and had 11 tackles for losses.... Troy saw a 14-0 first half lead vanish, but almost rallied from a 28-17 fourth quarter deficit only to fail on a late two-point try in its 28-26 season opening loss at home to a good Nevada team that didn't travel across the nation to lose to a team from little ole Troy, Alabama. Hey, Nevada was probably the best team that any of the three played over the weekend.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator looked a little sleepy when he dropped by the office over the weekend and blamed all the commercials that make most college football games last almost four hours. He did admit last week's 19-6 record with his prep picks was disappointing and was still shaking his head about Elba's big loss at home, but said better days are ahead and left this week's fearless forecast. Here goes week #3....

ELBA VS. MCKENZIE

The Pea River felines lost more than just a little fur last week in their first regular season loss since back in 2021 and will have to take the field with some bare spots showing when they stay at home to host a litter of kitties from just off the four-lane in Butler County. The felines better have short memories and be ready to play, because this litter may be a little hungry when it gets to the field and would love to feast on a region upset.

ELBA 44 MCKENZIE 20

Elba opens region play against McKenzie

The Elba Tigers will stay at home and jump into the region wars on Friday night when they host the McKenzie Tigers, on Mack Wood Field.

Elba leads the short series 4-0 and last season rolled to an impressive 56-28 road win.

"McKenzie is one of the top teams in the region and kind of flies under the radar a little bit due to its location and its record in recent years," said Elba's Coach Marc Sieving. "McKenzie got a new coach last season and really improved in all areas, and now that he is in his second year look for it to get even better and challenge for a spot in the playoffs. It has good numbers, a couple of quality players and is much better than anyone realizes."

Elba will bring a 1-1 record into the clash with a win over Luverne 50-22 and a loss to Glenwood 49-22, while McKenzie will enter the contest with a 2-0 slate after wins over Wilcox Central 47-12 and Prattville Christian 36-14.

"McKenzie has scored a lot of points in its opening two games and can definitely put points on the scoreboard against anyone on the schedule, including us," added Sieving. "They have a pair of wide receivers that are really good, and one that is like six foot five that has committed to Troy that is hard to stop no matter where he lines up. They are very athletic, am sure they are very confident, and after seeing that we got beat by four touchdowns last week will come in here looking to take home a big win."

"For us to be successful this week we have to learn from our mistakes of a week ago and get back to playing hard-nosed football on every play," said Sieving. "On offense we have to do a better job at the line of scrimmage, play with intensity and probably be a little more balanced in our attack. We can't just depend on two guys to carry the load. It is a team sport and to be successful it takes a team working together as one. Against McKenzie we will need to put some points on the scoreboard and be aggressive on defense. We need to regain that swagger that our teams have had in recent years and chalk up last week's loss as a learning experience for the players and coaches."

When asked about last week's 49-22 loss to Glenwood, Coach Sieving stated, "We lost to a very good football team that played really well on both sides of the ball. After watching the film, it was obvious we made way too many mistakes to win against a team of their caliber. We played well at times, but not enough to win the ballgame, and a lot of young players got thrown into the fire. We will work hard to get better in all areas and have to develop depth all across the field to help out with the early-season injuries we have. Sometimes a player that doesn't play that well is hidden because the guy next to him picks up the slack. However, this season we have to have all the players in the game doing their job on every play."

KINSTON VS. RED LEVEL

The bulldogs from down near the county line lost a track meet last weekend on the football field in Hartford and this week hope it will be back to football when they finally get the chance to play at home. It is never easy to win in the region, but the guess here is the 'dogs take out the disappointment of two early losses on the visiting kitties from Red Level.

KINSTON 34 RED LEVEL 27

ZION CHAPEL VS. GOSHEN

The troops from Fort Jack will be looking to add a new chapter to the history books this week when it jumps into region play while on a bird hunt just outside the gate. The troops may know just when and where the birds are to be released. However, the guess here is they may not have enough bullets to bag enough to call it a win.

GOSHEN 27 ZION CHAPEL 20

NEW BROCKTON VS. OPP

The fighting roosters from just off the four-lane will get to spend a little extra time in the coop this weekend and will have to ready for a litter of short-tailed kitties that are headed their way in a key region encounter. Look for feathers and fur to both be flying just around sunset, but the guess here is the kitties will leave town with a win.

OPP 28 NEW BROCKTON 14

BRANTLEY VS. PLEASANT HOME

The bulldogs from up across the creek will be back home this weekend and expect to have a lot of fun at a bird shoot just behind the school. While it really won't make any difference how any shots hit their target, the 'dogs will enjoy the get together and add a win to their side of the ledger.

The top-ranked Elba Tigers saw their 27-game regular season winning streak come to an abrupt end Friday night with a lopsided 49-22 loss to the Glenwood Gators, at Tiger Stadium.

The usually explosive Elba offense managed only three first downs and was forced to punt on its first four possessions, while Glenwood scored once in the first quarter and twice in the second to open up a 21-0 halftime advantage.

The first Gator touchdown came on a 9-yard pass from Levi Pinder to Christopher Lawrence following an 80-yard drive, and Leland Hughes kicked the extra-point as Glenwood grabbed a 7-0 lead with 2:57 left in the opening quarter.

The Gators lead grew to 13-0 with 5:56 remaining in the second quarter when a 4-yard scoring dash by Jermaine Brown capped a 57-yard march, and then went to 21-0 with 1:14 left in the half when Pinder connected with Mason McCrane on a 28-yard touchdown toss that climaxed a 72-yard march. Cameron Dawson completed a pass on the two-point conversion, and when the two teams went in at intermission Glenwood owned a surprising 21-0 lead.

Elba received the second half kickoff and it took the Tigers less than a minute to finally get on the scoreboard when Alvin Henderson spotted a hole in the Gator defense and raced 55 yards for a touchdown. Henderson also ran in the two-point conversion, and with 11:06 left in the third quarter the Tigers were within 21-8.

The excitement on the Elba side of the field didn't last for long; however, as Glenwood scored on its next two possessions to push its lead to 35-8.

An 8-yard run by Pinder and the extra-point by Hughes capped a 57-yard drive and upped the Gators lead to 28-8 with 9:55 left in the quarter, while the Gators cashed in an Elba fumble on the Tigers ensuing possession and drove 55 yards into the endzone, with the score coming on a 21-yard run by Carter Judah. Hughes again added the extra-point as Glenwood's lead ballooned to 35-8 with 6:20 still remaining in the quarter.

Elba continued to battle and cut the deficit to 35-14 with 5:30 left in the wild third quarter on a 56-yard scamper by Alvin Henderson, but the Tigers failed to take advantage of a Gator turnover late in the stanza and then watched as Glenwood added a score on a 13-yard run by Brown that capped a 50-yard scoring journey, and Hughes again added the extra-point as the Gators stayed in command and upped their lead to 42-14 with 5:54 left in the fourth quarter.

The Tigers Alvin Henderson scored his third touchdown of the night on a 9-yard dash with 3:45 left on the clock and Cayden Adkins ran in the two-point conversion as the Tigers narrowed the Gators lead to 42-22. However, Glenwood wasn't through yet enjoying its long trip to Elba and scored the game's final points with 2:35 remaining on a 5-yard run by Brown and a Hughes extra-point, as the Gators claimed the dominating 49-22 road win over the Tigers.

Alvin Henderson rushed for 175 yards and 3 touchdowns on 17 carries and caught one pass for 19 yards to lead the Elba offense, while Cayden Adkins rushed for 103 yards on 17 carries and completed 1 of 5 passes for 19 yards.

Gamecocks rally falls short in 40-34 loss to Slocomb

Statistics by Brandon White

The New Brockton Gamecocks saw a furious fourth quarter rally fall short in the closing minute of play in a hard fought 40-34 road loss to the Slocomb Red Tops.

New Brockton rallied from an early 7-0 deficit on a 13-yard run by Cade Birge and the extra-point by Trenton Balch to pull within 7-6 with 10:54 remaining in the second quarter on a 26-yard scamper by Camrin Wolf, but the Red Tops used a 6-yard touchdown toss from Birge to Hayes Hatton and a 52-yard scoop and score on a Gamecock fumble by Birge to open up a 21-6 halftime advantage.

New Brockton's Dawson Peacock lofted a 60-yard touchdown pass to Baylon Foster on the first play of the second half and Foster ran in the two-point conversion as the Gamecocks pulled within 21-14 only 16-seconds into the third quarter, and after a fumble recovery by Bryant Crumpler, Foster broke loose again and this time rambled 15 yards into the endzone as the Gamecocks closed the deficit to 21-20 with 4:39 left in the quarter.

A 28-yard touchdown toss from Peacock to Anthony Silar with 1:26 left cut the Slocomb lead to 34-26, and while the Red Tops took advantage of a short field after an unsuccessful on-sides kick attempt to go up 40-26 on a 53-yard run by Birge, the Gamecocks never backed down and got within 40-34 with 53-seconds left as the football changed hands from Peacock to Silar to Blake Cox on a 40-yard scoring play and a two-point pass from Wolf to Foster, only to see the late rally end as New Brockton dropped the exciting 40-34 non-region contest.
